War ceremony set at rifle range

Friends of the Fort Caswell Rifle Range will hold a ceremony Saturday, April 6 at 11 a.m. at the range site at Caswell Dunes. In conjunction with the Brunswick Town Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, members will call to roll to honor local men who served in World War I. The South Brunswick High School Color Guard will be present, as well as historic re-enactor Carl Mauney. Jim McKee, site manager of Brunswick Town/Fort Anderson State Historic Site, will speak and Cindy Sellers will present a medley of period music. The Southport Historical Society will fire its cannon "Thor."

The public is invited to attend and enjoy a light lunch following the ceremonies.
